COUNTY-WIDE STORMWATER SPLOST – SUNDAY SALE OF ALCOHOL ON PREMISES

Fayette County is planning to conduct a special election this November with two referendum questions on the ballot: 1. Core infrastructure SPLOST for Stormwater and 2. Sunday Alcohol Sales – One Premises Consumption. We will have all 36 voting precincts open for this Special Election, in addition, we will have the 15 town and city precincts. All 51 precincts will open at 7:00AM on the day of the November 5, 2013 election and will remain open until 7:00PM. If you are a resident of one of the cities or towns, and your regular voting precinct is in the county, you will be required to return back into the city in order to vote in the city election. Please ask your poll manager for assistance so that you will be sure to get to vote in all elections that you are qualified to vote in. Please check your voting locations at MY VOTER PAGE on the Secretary of State's website – www.vote.ga.gov. This website will give you information about your polling locations as well as information regarding sample ballots and candidates.

We will begin EARLY VOTING here in the Elections Office on Monday, October 14, 2013 through November 1, 2013 for these elections in the Elections Office from 8:00AM until 5:00PM daily. We will also have EARLY VOTING on Monday October 21 through November 1, 2013 at the Peachtree City Library and the Council Chambers of the Tyrone Town Hall. We will vote at these locations from 8:00AM until 5:00PM daily
